FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Children's charity achieving social change in South Yorkshire scoops DSC award

SAFE@LAST has been awarded an Everyday Impact Award by the Directory of Social Change (DSC) for its work with young runaways.

The charity's vision is that every child be heard, giving them the very best opportunity to identify and resolve their issues surrounding running away.

Hilary Massarella SAFE@LAST Founder Trustee said "SAFE@LAST is unique in that it provides a full range of wrap around services for young runaways, from prevention right through to crisis intervention. The award recognizes the tireless work of our staff and volunteers to improve outcomes for children and young people in our region."

Kevin Barron MP who is a patron of SAFE@LAST accepted the award and said "It is a pleasure to be at the ceremony and I am delighted that the charity has got the national recognition it deserves. Thanks to all of you who voted for us."

Directory of Social Change (DSC) is an independent national charity and the largest provider of information and training to the UK voluntary and community sector. DSC seeks to support voluntary organisations become effective agents for social change. The award was one of four offered by DSC at their annual Social Change Awards.
